Michigan Community Credit Union Announces New Mortgage Loan Originator

Jackson, MI, July 26, 2016 – Michigan Community Credit Union is pleased to announce the selection of Cherie Good as their new Mortgage Loan Originator.

Michigan Community Credit Union Director of Lending and Commercial Services, Tim Walz said, "I was very impressed with Cherie's experience in business development, as well as her excellent customer service. One of the first things I noticed with Cherie was her passion to educate our membership. She is incredibly motivated to help our current, and potential, members with their mortgage process."

Cherie Good is a graduate of Baker College, earning her degree in Business and Marketing. She has had five years' experience working in the Credit Union industry, and more than 12 years working in business. She has also had a lot of personal experience in the home buying process, from being a first time home buyer, to implementing construction for her house. "I have a tremendous passion for real estate. The idea that I get to help members of our community find their dream home is an honor," said Cherie. "I remember how thrilled I was purchasing and building my home, and I am grateful to have the opportunity to provide that same excitement for someone else." Cherie Good can be reached via telephone at 517.990.3733 or by email at cherie@micommunitycu.com.

Michigan Community Credit Union is ecstatic to have selected Cherie Good as their new Mortgage Loan Originator. The Credit Union believes she has the necessary skills and appropriate attitude to be successful in the position she was hired into. "Cherie's strengths, determination, and positive mindset will make her a successful asset to the Michigan Community Credit Union team and our membership," said Walz.
